POWERFUL, RICH & FLAVOURSOME CONTINUED....

- AMARONE DELLA VALPOLICELLA 2010, MARION, MARCELLISE, VENTO, ITALY £95.00
Stefano Campedelli's desire to produce an Amarone with more freshness is clear in this elegant, yet full-bodied wine. Aromas reminiscent of stewed, sweet plums and wild herbs are supported by chocolate and roasted coffee. The mouth-feel is silky in texture and the weight of fruit buffers the tannins. Excellent balance.
- COLUMELLA 2013, THE SADIE FAMILY, COASTAL REGION, SOUTH AFRICA £100.00
An utterly enticing nose of red and black fruit, purple flowers and fynbos. The palate is rich and full but shows great poise – the wine is intense but not exaggerated. Lovely fresh acidity and deft extraction making for fine tannins. Delicacy, grace and just a bit of Sadie nonchalance.
- HORSE HEAVEN HILLS 'SORELLA' 2009, CABERNET SAUVIGNON, MERLOT, CABERNET FRANC, USA £105.00
A Bordeaux blend based on 65% cabernet sauvignon; from Champoux Vineyard, in Washington state. Bright red-ruby. Super ripe aromas of cassis, cocoa powder, sandalwood and nutty oak. Supple, creamy, full and deep, with lush flavours of red fruits, spices and sandalwood. The big, ripe tannins coat the palate and front teeth on the very long, rich finish.
- GIACONDA WARNER VINEYARD 2012, SHIRAZ, BEECHWORTH, VICTORIA, AUSTRALIA £110.00
Deep garnet-purple, lovely aromas of red and black berries – mulberries, red cherries and black raspberries – with nuances of lavender, black pepper and wild thyme. Light to medium-bodied, the palate is very elegantly styled, with a moderate level of tannins and lively acid finishing with plenty of vibrant berry, pepper and spice flavour layers.
- COTE-ROTIÉ 2011, M & S OGIER, AMPUIS, COTE-ROTIÉ, FRANCE £115.00
Stéphane Ogier is now, arguably, the leading producer in Côte-Rôtie. Confident, modest and courteous, in short he is the perfect ambassador for the appellation. Perfumed, luscious and refined. The 2011 vintage in the Rhone has opened up early to black fruits, dark berries and sweet spices.

- L'ESPRIT DE CHEVALIER 2012, PESSAC-LEOGAN £52.00
Second wine of Domaine de Chevalier. Bright vibrant black cherry fruit laced with warm vanilla. It really has an essence both on the nose and palate of the Grand Vin which was amazing this year. Scrumptious and super value.

Matured for 12-15 months in 50% new oak and made from vines with an average age of 30 years, Château La Tour Baladoz St Emilion Grand Cru 2011 is rich with enticing notes of mocha, dark chocolate, earth, blackcurrants, dark plums and sweet spice. Aromatic with a lingering, fruity finish, this is an elegant and well-crafted wine
- CHATEAU TRONQUOY-LALANDE 2009, ST. ESTEPHE £70.00
Robert Parker said 2009 may well go down "as the single greatest vintage ever produced in Bordeaux since records have been kept". Drinking beautifully right now, this classy Saint Estèphe which shows layers of intense black fruit with superb richness, texture and depth. This an affordable snapshot of that glorious year. Scarce, too.
